A Bloodthirsty Canadian Editor Threatens to Retaliate on President Harrison.

MONTREAL, QUE., July 6.—Le Monde, a leading French paper, referring to President Harrison's proposal of retaliation against Canada, says:

"The reprisal legislation adopted at Washington is an insult and threat to the people of England and Canada. By signing this law the President has broken the treaty of 1871, with the deliberate intention of injuring the British crown. Probably this election legislation will not be put into effect, but if they dare to enforce the law the duty of the imperial and Canadian authorities is clear. An injury done to the honor and dignity of those who protect this treaty and the rights it assures to the people of Canada would require good and prompt reparation. If the voice of English diplomacy has no echo at Washington, recourse must be had to the louder and more powerful voice of cannon and Gatling guns. There is no alternative. Choose, Mr. Harrison."

Make haste. Your baggage is all right, but have you got a supply of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters? No! Then you have made a sad omission, and if you are troubled with stomachic qualms en route—if you are sea sick, my dear sir or madam, you will have deserved your fate. How dreadfully the waves or the jarring of an engine or screw shakes you! Now there is a sure and safe cure to the ship's side. Now, if you had the Bitters along with you this wouldn't happen. Travelers and tourists, take our advice, and before you start on your yachting or ocean voyage your coast-wise trip or inland outing, obtain the Bitters, and thus fortify yourselves against stomachic difficulties, malaria, dyspepsia, and the effects of exposure to rough weather or bad diet and water. Take it, too, for biliousness, kidney trouble and rheumatism.
